

Historic Preservation Month Talks, Lectures, and MORE!

All talks are free unless otherwise noted.

- March 31 A Day with Lawrence Griffith and Barbara Lombardi
David Lawrence, Curator of Plants, Colonial Williamsburg
Barbara Lombardi, Staff Photographer, Colonial Williamsburg
Reynolda Gardens, Education Wing of the Greenhouse
Tuesday at 12:30pm
100 Reynolda Village
General Admission: $5.00
- A Day with Lawrence Griffith and Barbara Lombardi continues
Tour of restored Medical Gardens by Dan Johnson and Bev Nesbit followed by Lawrence Griffith speaking on plants used in colonial medicine
Tuesday at 4:00pm
Historic Bethabara Park
General Admission: $3.00
- April 21 Reynolda Gardens' Tuesday Gardening Series
Camilla Wilcox, RGWFU Curator of Education and Diane Wise, RGWFU Head Horticulturist
"Restoring Reynolda Gardens"
Tuesday at 12:30pm
General Admission: $5.00
- May 6 Old Salem's Lunch and Learn
Dennis Pogue, Associate Director of Mount Vernon for Preservation
"Restoring Mount Vernon: The Dawning of America's Historic Preservation Movement"
Wednesday at 12:00 noon
St. Philips Church
911 S. Church Street, Winston-Salem
- May 7 Evenings at the Methodist Children's Home
AIA Lecture
Bucky Frye, Plans Examiner and Downtown Building Liaison
"Historic Buildings and How They Relate to Current Building Codes" AIA CEU Credit
Thursday at 6:00pm
The Methodist Children's Home at the Edwards Building Auditorium
1001 Reynolda Road, Winston-Salem
- May 13 Old Salem's Lunch and Learn
David Bergstone, Director of Architecture, Old Salem
"The Rural Landscape of Salem: On the Way to Stockburger Farm"
Wednesday at 12:00 noon
St. Philips Church
911 S. Church Street, Winston-Salem

- May 14 Evenings at the Methodist Children's Home
George Bryan, President/CEO of The Children's Home
"100 Years of Historic Structures Meeting Today's Challenges"
The Methodist Children's Home at the Tise Cottage
Thursday at 6:00pm
1001 Reynolda Road, Winston-Salem
- May 17 Happy Hill Historic Marker Unveiling
Happy Hill Neighborhood
Sunday at 3:00pm
Winston-Salem
- May 17 Bethania Historical Association Annual Meeting
Angelo Franceschina, speaker
Old Bethania School
Sunday at 7:00pm
Seidel Lane, Bethania
- May 18 Visit to the Stauber Farm
Come join Charles and Lamar Taft as they open their farm for a don't miss tour
Monday from 4:00pm to 6:00pm
Samuel B. Stauber Farm
6085 Bethania-Tobaccoville Road, Bethania
- May 19 Walkertown Area Historical Society Meeting
Wayne Biby, Walkertown Historical Society Board of Directors
"Sharing Walkertown's Past"
The Walkertown Public Library
Tuesday at 6:30pm
2969 Main Street, Walkertown
- May 20 Old Salem's Lunch and Learn
Heather Fearnbach, Historic Preservation Consultant
"Forsyth County's Cultural Landscapes"
Wednesday at 12:00 noon
St. Philips Church
911 S. Church Street, Winston-Salem
- May 21 Evenings at the Methodist Children's Home
Molly Rawls, Photograph Collection Librarian
"Then and Now: Winston-Salem"
The Methodist Children's Home at the Tise Cottage
Thursday at 6:00pm
1001 Reynolda Road, Winston-Salem
- May 27 Old Salem's Lunch and Learn
Michael Hartley, Director of Archeology and Martha Hartley, Researcher & Planner, Old Salem Museums & Gardens
"The African-American Experience at St. Phillips"
Wednesday at 12:00 noon
St. Philips Church
911 S. Church Street, Winston-Salem

May 28

Evenings at the Methodist Children's Home

Dr. Todd Lasseigne*, Executive Director of the Paul J. Ciener Botanical Gardens in Kernersville

"Building a New Public Garden in Kernersville, North Carolina"

The Methodist Children's Home at the Tise Cottage

Thursday at 6:00pm

1001 Reynolda Road, Winston-Salem

Look for more events to come throughout the year!